VIRGINIA BEACH, the most famous and most favored seashore resort on the South Atlantic coast, the only ocean shore resort in Virginia, and a spot made famous in history, is located only twenty miles east of Norfolk, facing the Atlantic Ocean. It is reached by fast electric trains from Norfolk, requiring only 40 minutes to make the trip. The nearness of the Gulf Stream and the smooth and flat beach make bathing always delightful.

In addition to the many natural advantages which Virginia Beach possesses, a magnificent Casino Building, more than 600 feet in length, and complete in all its appointments, has been erected at the north end of the town and is now completed and ready for use. An immense ballroom, a complete cafe and grill room, and a large and spacious are picnic pavilion included in the Casino building. It is the finest building of its character at any seashore resort on the coast. The north end of the building where the picnic pavilion is located is ideal for Sunday-school outings, special excursions and other large parties. Included in the picnic pavilion is a modern bath-house

The Norfolk Southern Railroad will maintain a thirty-minute schedule between Virginia Beach and the new Terminal Station, Norfolk, Va., connecting with all through trains to and from Richmond, the South and the West. Additional and improved express service will also be maintained between Virginia Beach and City Hall Avenue Station (opposite Monticello Hotel), Norfolk, Va., which will make and receive immediate connection with all trains for Richmond, the South and the West.

capable of accommodating 1,000 bathers, where every convenience is afforded. Chairs, tables, ice water, etc., will be furnished in abundance free for the excursionists, while soda, ice cream, etc., may be secured at reasonable prices. An orchestra will give daily open air concerts, and at night dancing in the pavilion may be indulged in. The Casino building will be surrounded by a large amusement park, where every device of a pleasure-giving nature will be provided.

Virginia Beach has long been conceded the finest bathing beach on the Atlantic coast, and its reputation has become nation-wide. Its natural advantages and its accessibility are unexcelled.

The many well-appointed hotels and cottages at Virginia Beach afford every convenience to the tourist, for a day or a week or longer. These hotels and cottages face directly on the ocean and are situated only a few yards from the surf.
